Custody of Securities

The Trust Department has complete facilities for the safe-keeping of securities deposited in its care. Dividends, coupons and bonds are collected when due, and the proceeds credited or remitted on order. Instructions for the sale or delivery of securities or the reinvestment of funds may be telegraphed or cabled with certainty of prompt attention. In order to keep depositors informed of developments affecting their securities a constant watch is kept for notices of called bonds and other material information.

This service, for which a moderate charge is made, is of special convenience to those going out of town or abroad.

Edwin R. Hearn of Wheeling, W. Va., filed suit here against his sister. Lillie Lee Hearn, and the latter's companion, Carrie Hill, to enforce the payment to him of the dividends on 100 shares of United States Steel preferred under a trust deed by which Miss Hearn and two other sisters gave him 100 shares each in trust.

Hearn said in his complaint, filed yesterday, that his father, Edwin R. Hearn, died here in 1899 leaving about $500,000. He made direct bequests to his three daughters, but gave the plaintiff only a share of the residuary estate. He says that his share amounts to only $20,000 while his sister Lillie got $175,000. Because she thought there ought to be a more equitable division she and her sister that the said bonds be deposited at once. his clients had acted on the advice of counsel and asked that the jury be instructed to disregard it. Judge Rosalsky took the request under consideration.

Mr. Jerome called as a witness James M. Norris, one of the indicted poultry jobbers. Mr. Norris described the activities of the association from the point of view of a member. Its function, he said, was by no means to stiffe competition. It fostered competition, he said, by assuring a market for all the poultry leads to be already feeding their cattle in Java.
